Level 1A Class (7-8s)

This is the beginning level of ballet technique for ages 7+. Dancers who have completed Pre-Ballet A and/or B often go directly into Level 1b if they commit to 2 classes per week of study. Students must attend 2 days (3 hours a week) in Level 1b. In Level 1a, dancers only have to attend one class each week for Ballet, early Modern, and Repertoire. It is a good introduction to ballet and our programs on one day for both new and returning students ages 7-8. New students ages 9-10 should begin in 1b. New students ages 11+ should speak to Mrs. Hill or Mrs. Strunk about placement and begin in Level 1b or 2a.

For our younger students, we strive to provide them with self confidence, focus, discipline and a love for dance by encouraging their creativity and imagination along with foundational ballet technique.

Level 1B Classes (7-11s)

This is the beginning level of barre and center ballet technique for ages 7+. Dancers who have completed Pre-Ballet A and/or B often go directly into Level 1b if they commit to 2 classes per week of study. Students must attend 2 days (3 hours a week) in Level 1b. In Level 1b dancers get a full 1 to 1.25 hour ballet class twice a week and our early Modern/Lyrical A syllabus. Students also take Repertoire Class for group dances and rehearsals. This class is for new and returning students ages 7-11. New students ages 9-10 should begin in 1b instead of 1A. New students ages 11+ should speak to Mrs. Hill or Mrs. Strunk about placement and begin in Level 1b or 2a.

For our younger students, we strive to provide them with self confidence, focus, discipline and a love for dance by encouraging their creativity and imagination along with foundational ballet technique.
