Thursdays: 7:00-8:30 pm Modern D, ages 12+ and Intermediate/Advanced

Dress Code:

Modern/Jazz/Tap: Dance attire, plus you may wear black, form-fitting shorts or leggings over your tights. Young Dancers ages 3-6 May wear street clothes/yoga type attire. Dancers ages 7+ need to have dance attire.

Musical Theater: The Acting portions may have street clothes, please contact your teacher. The jazz/dance/tap classes need dance attire.

Shoes: Tap shoes are supplied for ages 3-6 as borrowed shoes from Arts Ballet. Clean shoes will be fitted and used by that student. Students ages 7-9 might be able to borrow shoes if the size is available. Otherwise older children can order tap shoes through Arts Ballet or others. For young children, we recommend shoes without ties, as they don't interrupt class as often.

Jazz shoes are not required, but may be purchased. Students may wear ballet flat shoes or socks until they are older.

All other classes that are not ballet may wear socks or bare feet. Teachers will direct these choices by class and age.
